

COLLEGE BROCHURE HANDOUT

LIBRARY & STUDY SPACES:

- The library at Chapman is one of the best resources here!
 - ◆ There is so MUCH you can use, find, utilize to better your Chapman experience academically.

THE LIBRARY:

→ Hours

- Monday – Thursday 7:00 am – 2:00 am
- Friday – 7:00 am – 12:00 am
- Saturday – Sunday 8:00 am – 12:00 am
- ◆ After Hours: First floor rotunda/library is available Sunday through Thursday nights after hours study.
- ◆ Finals Week: During finals week, the library is open 24/7 and limited snacks are available.

→ Starting Your Search

- ◆ <https://www.chapman.edu/library/index.aspx> → Here, you can look up all the resources you want to find digitally including books, e-books, media, journals, newspapers, and much more.
- ◆ If you can't find the medium you need, you can do an Interlibrary loan.

→ Interlibrary Loan

- ◆ allows you to request to borrow books and journal articles that the Leatherby Libraries does not own for FREE.

STUDY SPACES:

- There are plenty of study spaces on Chapman's beautiful campus! Here are list of our favorite spots but you can constantly find more hidden gems.
 - ◆ Library
 - As a Chapman student, there are plenty of study rooms that you can book for an extended amount of time

Greek Life at Chapman University

Sorority Life:

- There are many opportunities that sorority life can offer related to leadership, professional development, philanthropy, service, and friendship.
- There are 8 sorority's on Chapman's campus

When?

- Formal recruitment takes place in the spring semester, usually at the end of January
- 12 completed college credits are needed to participate in the recruitment

Fraternity life:

- Chapman University's Fraternity community is the home to 10 unique fraternities.
- Each fraternity is founded upon various principles and values that the members mutually share.
- Approximately 30% of degree-seeking undergraduate men are a part of a fraternity on campus.

When?

- Fraternity's rush during the spring AND the fall semesters

Center for Global Education

<https://www.chapman.edu/international-studies/center-for-global-education/index.aspx>

In light of coronavirus, things are very different at the moment. But otherwise, it's a very pleasant experience!

- Programs available for all majors and minors in over 40 countries.
- (Few of my favorite ones to name: Prague, London, Harry Potter/Game of Thrones)
- VISA/passport questions
- Scholarship opportunities

Study Abroad

- Semester
- Interterm 1-4 weeks
- Summer 1-4 weeks

- Global First Steps info session (mandatory before you submit your application)
- Email them questions about app process
- Orientation meetings before you go
